2024 Academic & Career Success Awards

Keystone Award

Honoring individuals whose work provides crucial support to advising and/or career services and/or learning support and who positively influence students' and/or other stakeholders' experiences with campus. These individuals deliver outstanding service and support, often behind-the-scenes, and ensure that operations run smoothly. Examples could include administrative, communications, event planning, programming, or operations support.

Up to $2000 in professional development funding awarded to recipient.

Early Career Excellence Award

Honoring individuals who have been employed at UW-Madison for fewer than 5 years, but in that time have made distinctive contributions to undergraduate advising and/or career services and/or learning support on our campus.

Up to $2000 in professional development funding awarded to recipient.

Outstanding Achievement Award

Honoring individuals who have made significant contributions to UW-Madison undergraduate advising and/or career services and/or learning support, with emphasis on direct student, employer, and/or alumni impact. Eligible candidates must have been employed at UW-Madison for a minimum of 5 years.

Up to $2000 in professional development funding awarded to recipient.

Community Leadership Award

Honoring individuals who have made exceptional contributions to the advising and/or career services and/or learning support community, regardless of role. Leadership, management, coordination of people, projects, committees, and initiatives will all be considered.

Up to $2000 in professional development funding awarded to recipient.

Commitment to Social Justice Award

This award recognizes an individual, group, or unit that has shown a commitment to social justice work in advising and/or career services and/or learning support through education, policies and practices, advocacy, or programming to create more equitable experiences for students and/or colleagues.

Up to $2000 in professional development funding will be awarded to the recipient, group, or unit.

Collaborative Impact Award

Honoring partnerships (of two or more people) who made a significant and impactful contribution to their unit(s), department(s), school(s) or college(s), and/or campus through their collaborative work. This award recognizes the importance of cooperative effort in creating and executing meaningful programs and events, process improvements, and/or marketing and promotion. The collaboration between these individuals or teams results in a better experience for students, colleagues, and/or external stakeholder(s). Up to $2000 in professional development funding will be awarded to the recipient, group, or unit.

Outstanding Student Employee Award

Honoring student employees who have a record of excellence in their work within academic and/or career services and/or learning support units at UW-Madison. Each recipient will receive $250 as part of the award.
